

DCAF-ICRC Knowledge Hub Resource

Resource no.: 216

Link: <http://psm.du.edu/>

Private Security Monitor, University of Denver

The Private Security Monitor is a research project created at the University of Denver in order to support governance in the security sector by serving as an annotated guide to laws, data, reports and analysis related to the private provision of military and security services. Existing regulation can be sought by country, extensive background documents are available and a variety of international regulations and industry initiatives are outlined.